18. (Unclassified - GLC) I returned the call from Mr. Buigi, GAO, who had asked about ways of getting agreements between the [REDACTED] which were in the libraries of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. I told Buigi that our people were in touch with the Assistant Librarian for Presidential Libraries in the National Archives and would obtain from him the documents involved or references to them so that we could review Agency materials and determine whether or how these materials could be made available for purposes of a GAO study. I told him that when we had completed this review we would be back in touch with him.

19. (Confidential - GLC) Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, visited the Agency for background briefings by the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] McConnell stayed on for lunch with Messrs [REDACTED] DC/LA Division, Jack Iams, Comptroller, and George Cary.
